Project: In a predefined tri-panel area create a state of the art donor recognition system.

Solution: Since our client also wanted high brand awareness we turned to our unique line of DonorMurals™ (also see Girls Inc.). Using two sizes of metal squares we created a grid of photographs and donor plaques. The beauty of the system is that any plaque can be replaced with just 4 screws. A 10 to 14 panel update takes under ½ hour and new looks are created by simply changing the photographs. All the plaques are created using our photo embedded metal process in this 100% "green" installation.
